

Now the Lord is that Spirit and where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is liberty.
II Corinthians 3:17

SPECIAL TRIBUTE

LET IT BE KNOWN

That it is indeed a pleasure to pay tribute to Federal Metro College upon its formation and upon the commencement of classes.

It is most appropriate that official recognition be extended Federal Metro College upon embarking on a truly noble course in fulfilling the educational needs of the people of Detroit. Classes will begin at this new institution of higher education on September 23, 1974.

Sponsored by the Detroit Federal Executive Board, Federal Metro College offers a unique opportunity to those ambitious individuals seeking to further their education and professional expertise. At present the following agencies are participating in this worthy enterprise: the United States Department of Housing and Urban Development, the United States Department of Justice, the United States Department of Defense, the United States Department of Transportation, the National Labor Relations Board, the Internal Revenue Service, and the Small Business Administration.

The program at Federal Metro College is designed to serve public service employees from all levels of government. With an initial enrollment of seventy-five students of varied ages and backgrounds, the College will offer courses in English, Sociology, Psychology, Business Management, and Accounting. The courses will be taught by full professors from the Wayne State University College of Lifelong Learning.

IN SPECIAL TRIBUTE, Therefore, This document is signed and sealed in honor of Federal Metro College upon its formation and upon the commencement of classes. Truly, it may be said that this promising institution will play a vital role in fulfilling the educational needs of the people of Detroit.
